Clayton Zammit and Rachel Chircop win their first Silver Cup Tournament at the Eden Super Bowl.

The Silver cup is held every year, and is restricted to male bowlers who have an overall average of 170 or less, and female bowlers who average 165 or less in that current year. A total of 21 males and 15 females made up the field for a highly competitive tournament!

In the ladies' section, Rachel Chircop led from the start, ending the 6 game qualifiers with a total of 1027 including handicap, followed by Jessica Farrugia on 1007, and Karlise Bartolo on 1006. The other qualifiers for the final day were Marthese Cossai, Kathryn Fenech, Natasha Bianchi, Miriana Pace and Sandra Xuereb.

The final day consists of a round robin where all bowlers, who start the day with half the previous day's totals, play a direct match against each other. These 7 games saw Chircop dominate with an overall 1939 total with 5 wins and a draw, followed by the young Bartolo on 1784 (won 3, lost 4), and Xuereb, with 5 wins, edging out Farrugia, also with 5 wins, by 1 point 1777-1776. Fenech finished 5th with 4 wins, followed by Cossai, Bianchi and Pace.

The men's section was led by Matthew Muscat after day 1, with an excellent 1200 total with handicap, followed by recent Gold Cup winner, Nicolai Mallia. Mallia bowled an amazing 194.67 scratch at just 11 years of age, to finish just 8 pins behind. Melvin Galea, Nicholas Falzon, Travis Barbara, Tomas Caruso, Bjorn Tabone and eventual winner Clayton Zammit who just made it 3 pins ahead of 9th placed Matthew Agius Inglott.

Zammit however was on a mission to win on the day of the finals, bowling the highest total scratch of the day and winning all 7 matches to finish with a 2065 final result, comfortably ahead of Mallia on 1968, winner of 3 games, and Muscat who won 4 to end on 1952. Another youth, Caruso, had a strong day with 6 wins to climb to 4th on 1929. Travis Barbara who also forms part of the youth squad finished 5th, Galea, Tabone and Falzon ended in 6th to 8th place.
